Brachers give vote of confidence, as Leeds Castle Concert headline sponsor

Award-winning law firm Brachers have sponsored the Leeds Castle Concert for the last four years and are once again supporting this iconic Kent event. Their sponsorship will help thousands reunite to celebrate and enjoy a much needed, outdoor music concert this summer.

Organisers Heritage Events continue to make plans to bring concert-goers a safe but spectacular event that so many are looking forward to. They have been overwhelmed by the love shown by its loyal audience who were happy to carry their tickets over to this year's event being held Saturday 10th July.

Brachers, who last year celebrated their 125th anniversary, offer a wide range of legal services for business, organisations and private clients across Kent and the South East. They have weathered the COVID storm and expanded into new offices in Canterbury and wanted to continue their association with an event that will be more needed this year than ever before.

Joanna Worby, Managing Partner at Brachers, said:

"We are so pleased to be returning as headline sponsor of this year's Leeds Castle Concert and to be supporting Heritage Events and Leeds Castle after what has been a very difficult time for the tourism industry.

The concert is a wonderful event and I'm sure this year will be more of a celebration than ever before. We are very happy to be involved and look forward to enjoying a great evening of music and entertainment."

This year really will be significant and emotional as it will be one of the first outdoor music events to return in Kent. It will feature a line-up, including the world-famous Royal Philharmonic Orchestra performing a mix of much-loved classical favourites alongside new orchestration of popular favourites conducted by John Rigby.

Down for the Count Swing Orchestra will be making their debut appearance, bringing their electrifying show full of incredible energy and musicianship. The band perform each song in their own unmistakable style, breathing new life into the best vintage music. Combine that with the band's top-class instrumental solos, sublime vocal performances and irresistible humour and joie de vivre, and the start to the concert will be incredibly uplifting, setting the scene for much more to come.
