Surprise Dad with Tickets to the Leeds Castle Concert this Father's Day

As life gradually starts to return to normal, Father's Day will be one to celebrate this year. Treat the special man in your life to tickets for the Leeds Castle Concert on 10th July and join friends and family with a picnic at Kent's best outdoor event this summer.

Get ready to wave a Union Jack flag and raise a toast to Dad and the world-famous Royal Philharmonic Orchestra as they once again take to the stage in their 75th anniversary year. This incredible event is an open-air musical delight best enjoyed with friends, candelabras and bunting in the sunshine.

Sit back, relax and take in the stunning backdrop of Leeds Castle as world renowned conductor John Rigby takes to the stage and leads the orchestra and a fantastic line-up of performers in a programme of world-class music.

This year's concert will include performances of classic tunes from the 'Down for the Count Swing Orchestra' as well as an emotive Spitfire flypast and impressive fireworks finale.

Avoid carrying a picnic hamper with you to the concert site and upgrade your ticket to have a delicious picnic hamper for two waiting for you on arrival for an additional £47 for two people. For a really special Father's Day treat, why not surprise Dad and arrange to have 6 chilled beers waiting for him at the event for just £19.50 extra!

It couldn't be simpler to book tickets for the Leeds Castle Concert for Dad this Father's Day, just visit the website www.leeds castleconcert.co.uk for more information. Picnic tickets are priced at £53 per person. Purchase ten or more tickets and receive a 10% discount. Brachers, a leading law firm in Kent, return as headline sponsor for the fifth year.

Leeds Castle is located near Maidstone in Kent just off Junction 8 of the M20 and only one hour's drive from London.
