Back by popular demand Down for the Count to open the 2022 Leeds Castle Concert

Down for the Count are ready to get the party started at Leeds Castle, with a performance fit for royalty!

Following its big return in September 2021, Kent's iconic Leeds Castle Concert has a packed programme for audiences to enjoy live music and entertainment within the historic setting of Leeds Castle.

This Swing Orchestra will be back to open the concert on Saturday 9th July, as they bring their popular and electrifying show full of incredible energy and musicianship. Audiences can expect swing classics from their current tour across England and Scotland, including "Sing, Sing, Sing", "I've Got You Under My Skin", "Cheek to Cheek" and many more.

Down for the Count's Band Manager Mike Paul-Smith said:

"We're absolutely thrilled to be returning to Leeds Castle for the 2022 concert - we absolutely loved performing for you in 2021 and simply cannot wait to spend a sunny summer's day performing our swing, jazz and big band favourites for you once again!"

In celebration of the Platinum Jubilee, this year's concert will continue with a "Royal Garden Party" vibe. The audience is invited to dust off their tiaras and regal finery for a chance to win a coveted 'best dressed' spot prize.

With a diverse and exhilarating programme, audiences will have a truly memorable evening singing and dancing to their favourite songs as well as enjoy the visual spectacle of field-guns, the iconic Spitfire display and mesmerising firework finale overlooking the Castle.

The Leeds Castle Concert also makes for an ideal Mother's Day present and tickets are priced at £49 per person for picnic style. Purchase ten or more tickets and receive a 10% discount. Brachers, a leading law firm in Kent, returns as headline sponsor for the sixth year.

Leeds Castle is located near Maidstone in Kent just off Junction 8 of the M20 and only one hours drive from London.
