Leeds Castle Concert announce spectacular female soloists

The Leeds Castle Concert takes place on Saturday 9th July 2022 and the organisers are delighted to announce two sensational female performers Kelly Mathieson and Louise Dearman, will be taking to the stage ensuring this spectacular event will be another one to remember.

Scottish Born Actress and Singer, Kelly Mathieson will be making her debut performance. Kelly made her name in the Musical Theatre industry when she landed the lead role of Christine Daaé in the Original Production of 'Phantom of the Opera' in the West End. Growing up, Kelly trained firstly as a ballet dancer with the prestigious Scottish Ballet Company but decided to focus her career path on classical singing at the Royal College of Music before transitioning into Musical Theatre.

Louise Dearman is no stranger to the stage having mesmerised the audience with her performances last year and in 2018 & 2019. Louise is a British actress and singer, most well known for playing the roles of Glinda and Elphaba in the West End production of Wicked. She is a charismatic singer that connects with the audience making everyone feel part of the performance.

Kelly Mathieson

Stage credits include Christine Daaé – West End. ‘Cinderella’ – Into the Woods – Lyric Theatre. Nellie – South Pacific – Toulon Opera house with Broadway conductor, Larry Blank.

During her nearly 3 year award winning run as Christine Daaé, Kelly gained momentum on the concert stage platform performing at the Royal Albert Hall and Royal Concert Hall as a soloist and then onto Cadogan Hall, London where she played Tonia in the UK Premier of ‘Dr Zhivago’. She recently has joined a star-studded cast of singers on a UK tour of Christmas concerts with ‘West End International’, singing with the Royal Scottish Chamber Orchestra and Royal Northern Sinfonia. Kelly recently represented the United Kingdom at EXPO Dubai. At Theatre Royal Drury Lane, Kelly joined comedian and West End star, Jason Manford as his guest soloist, at his Christmas Concert.

Kelly has sold out two solo cabarets at London West Ends Cabaret Bar ‘Crazy Coqs’. Kelly is in the midst of releasing her first solo album signing to Musical Theatre label ‘WestWay Music’.
