First time performers announced for Leeds Castle Concert

New to the Leeds Castle Concert this year will be two fantastic male soloists. Jon Robyns joined by Timothy Richards, who is crossing the channel to perform at the event on Saturday 9th July 2022.

British stage actor Jon Robyns has a string of credits to his name, including the roles of Princeton and Rod in Avenue Q the musical and more recently Jean Valjean in Les Misérables in London's West End. This will be Jon's debut appearance and we can't wait to experience his performance.

Travelling all the way from Germany to join Jon on stage is critically acclaimed Welsh tenor Timothy Richards who is now recognised as one of Europe's leading lirico/spinto tenors. Soon after graduating Timothy made his professional operatic debut in 1998 as Alfredo in La Traviata for Welsh National Opera; this quickly led to invitations to perform in Semperoper Dresden, Oslo and Spoleto, Italy. After these early successes, he found himself in demand to sing the leading lirico/spinto tenor roles in many of Europe's great opera houses.

Timothy Richards

Timothy told us: "I am truly delighted and very excited to be performing for the very first time at this Iconic event. This beautiful location with one of the loveliest castles in the world. Leeds Castle Concert on Saturday 9th July 2022 is truly a highlight in my calendar!"

To celebrate the Queen's Jubilee, early bird prices are being extended through to Monday 6th June. Visit www.leedsastleconcert.co.uk to secure your tickets at £52pp (increasing to £55pp on 6th June).

Gather your friends and family together for the ultimate patriotic party at the Leeds Castle Concert this July. Tickets make the perfect Father's Day gift.

Brachers, a leading law firm in Kent, returns as headline sponsor for the fifth year. Leeds Castle is located near Maidstone in Kent just off Junction 8 of the M20 and only one hours drive from London.
